The Ministry of Shipping is planning the development of the following Vistula River ports in 1953, with the object of increasing their capacity for trans-shipment of goods:

- a. Sandomierz (R51/Q51): adaptation for the reception of coal and chemical fertilizers sent by waterways from Silesia to the agricultural areas of Sandomierz. This port is also to become the export center of agricultural products sent toward Krakow and Warsaw.
- b. Plock (Q53/K12): development of the port so as to allow for the storage of raw materials imported via Gdansk (Danzig), for onward shipment to Lodz and Tomaszow.
- c. Torun (Q54/J39): construction of a port.
